

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

Right now the range of information available is too narrow. Further consolidation does not serve our democracy well.

It is essential that people have the opportunity to submit their comments and so there should be hearings outside of Washington, D.C.

We are entitled to participate and can't if there are only hearings there. There should be hearings on the West Coast, South and North as well as in the Midwest, Southeast, and Northeast.
